

BEFORE YOU READ: For each of the words below, check the column that applies to you. If you don't know the word, use the context to guess what it means. Then look up the definition and add it to the second chart.

Word	I Can Define	I Have Seen/Heard	New Word for Me
churning
hover forlorn
incline
vulnerable
embroider

Word and Page #	What I think it means	Definition
churning- 165
hover - 166
forlorn - 169
incline - 172
vulnerable - 183
embroider - 190

--	--	--

Make a Prediction! Will Moose arrange for Natalie to see AZ 105 again before her interview?

--

Figurative Language

Directions: Add figurative language to the chart in the previous reading guide and label it. Explain what is being compared and then add what the author is trying to express.

Examples:

Similes--"rocking wildly, like a little boat in a ship's wake" p. 167, "the word we buzzing inside my head like a fly in a small room" p. 191

WHILE YOU READ: Annotate! Underline what you think is interesting, underline and label figures of speech, underline words, phrases, or objects or situations that you see over and over (again and again), make stars if something stands out, circle words you don't know.

AFTER YOU READ: Short Answer Questions

Answer the questions below in complete sentences. Support some of your answers with quotes.

Why does Mr. Flanagan give Moose a beer? (p. 172)	Do you think Mr. Flanagan approves of underage drinking?

Who do you think is the "we" that Piper refers to when asking about Natalie's real age? (p. 191)

--